

Serprotech Energy

SERPROTECH ENERGY

MISSION

We are an organization specialized in services maintenance, reconditioning and electromechanical assembly of equipment and electrical installations, focused on the sustained growth of our clients, offering a highly qualified staff training, tools and proper equipment, with competitive prices in the market and committed to quality, safety and environmental protection in our operations.

Vision

be an organization recognized in the sector of services and projects in the area of energy, capable of offering reliable and safe solutions; valued, accepted and respected in the market of Latin America.

Values

Moral and ethic: Respect for our suppliers, internal and external customers.

Honesty: Value oriented behavior development transparent and sincere labor

Responsibility: Labor value oriented to the adequate and reliable fulfillment of the acquired organizational commitments and the effective resolution of the problems faced.

Worked: Dedication, perseverance and facing challenges with provision.